Subject: DIVISION-LEVEL ONLINE ORIENTATION ON THE APPLICATION FOR REGISTRATION TO KHAN ACADEMY – CLASSROOM OF THE FUTURE

Date: January 20, 2026

1. In support of the Department of Education's initiatives to strengthen technology-enabled teaching and learning, this Office hereby announces the conduct of a Division-Level Online Orientation on the Application for Registration to Khan Academy – Classroom of the Future on January 28, 2026 at 1:00 PM. This activity shall focus exclusively on the online application requirements, procedures, and validation process, which shall serve as the basis for determining schools that will be officially included in the Khan Academy onboarding.
2. The online orientation aims to:
  - a. Discuss the online application process for registration to Khan Academy – Classroom of the Future;
  - b. Explain the online validation requirements and criteria for evaluating school applications;
  - c. Clarify that attendance at the online orientation does not guarantee inclusion in the onboarding; and
  - d. Ensure that schools are properly guided in the online preparation and submission of application documents.
3. This online orientation is mandatory for all public schools that are not yet implementing the Khan Academy Program (KAPH). Participants shall include all School Heads of both elementary and secondary schools.
4. The orientation shall be conducted entirely online through the perpetual link of the Curriculum Implementation Division (CID):
<https://bit.ly/davnorcid-ta>
5. Only schools that successfully pass the online validation process and are officially declared as qualifying schools shall be included in the Khan Academy – Classroom of the Future onboarding.
6. This activity upholds the Equal Opportunity Principle, ensuring that:
  - a. No school shall be excluded on the basis of size, location, or learner population; and
  - b. All applications shall be assessed using the same standards, criteria, and validation procedures.
7. All concerned are enjoined to ensure participation and strict compliance.
