Executive Director

Dear Dir. Farnazo,

Greetings!

Resources for the Blind, Inc. (RBI) has been offering programs for persons with visual impairment since 1988. Our programs include education, rehabilitation, training, scholarships, eye care, low vision assessment and employment for blind adults. We have programs that especially for students with visual impairment in order for them to keep up with their sighted classmates. This is also to equip them so they can do their assignments independently or with minimal assistance especially in the subjects that we find it difficult for them. We also conduct training for regular teachers so that they can teach their blind students with ease. Our programs are effectively implemented in partnership with various government agencies, non-government organizations, as well as private individuals and international organizations.

On February 9 -12, 2023, RBI in partnership with the International Council for Education of People with Visual Impairment (ICEVI), join together for a 4-day workshop on Mathematics for learners with visual impairment to be held at the Cebu Parklane International Hotel, cor. Kamagong and Escario St. Lahug, Cebu City. Participants in the workshop are Mathematics teachers teaching students at the primary or secondary levels. The workshop aims to produce Instructional materials in Mathematics through video that can be useful for teachers who are teaching Mathematics to primary and secondary levels. It is also our goal to upload in the ICEVI website, the instructional videos that will be created in the workshop and can be shared to educators and parents who are supporting learners with visual impairment.

In this connection, may we request your permission to please allow Ms. Joan S. Dalisay, teacher of Sto. Tomas National High School to be one of the participants in the said workshop. RBI will provide her air tickets to and from Cebu City, her transportation to and from the airport as well as her hotel accommodation during the training.

Your consideration to this request is greatly appreciated. May we look forward to your approval.

Thank you very much.

Yours truly,

AMELIA TORRENTE
Executive Director
