Dear Sir Mellorida:

Warmest greetings from Koryo Mindanao Inc. Federation!

In the 53rd anniversary celebration of Cultural Center of the Philippines (CCP), President Ferdinand R. Marcos Jr. has emphasized his cultural advocacy in introducing arts and culture to children through the Cultural Center of the Philippines (CCP) and educational institutions as well as the government and private sectors for he believes that it would inspire and develop “talented and promising” artists.

Thus, Koryo Mindanao Inc. in partnership with the Choreographers’ Association of Surigao del Norte Incorporated both SEC registered and an organization of Street Dancing Choreographers, Artistic Directors, Festival Musicians, Artists and Cultural workers in Mindanao is pleased to announce the holding of its 5th Koryo Mindanao Summit on November 16-20, 2023 in Municipality of General Luna, Siargao Island, Surigao del Norte.

One of the activities of the aforementioned event is the series of workshops of Mindanao indigenous dances, festival production, festival management, Festival dance competition and skills development of the artists. Comprising of 250 to 300 participants all over Mindanao region.

Our aim is to develop the local artists guided with the right principle and values in presenting the beautiful cultures of Mindanao in various arts platforms, more importantly to raise awareness in cultural sensitivity in crafting legislative policies and or strengthen existing laws in protecting the entire festival industry. The activity is also timely as we prepare to open our doors for both domestic and international tourist thus the need to ensure quality and meaningful events reflective of Filipino values, culture and heritage.

In connection to this, we would like to invite interested MAPEH Teachers/Choreographers of your division to be part of this historical gathering of cultural practitioners in the islands of Mindanao, to wit;

The registration of this training-workshop is amounting to P 2, 500.00 inclusive of the following: Summit fee, Kit, ID with sling, Certificates, Speakers Honorarium, Tokens for guests, Snacks (6 times @30 each), KMI annual membership fee (membership ID with certificate) only.
